PAST CONTINUOUS: was/ were & -ing form

- 1. Für lang andauernde Handlungen in der Past Tense: He was waiting for the bus.
- 2. Wenn zwei (längere) Handlungen gleichzeitig verlaufen. Tom was watching TV while his wife was baking a cake.
- 3. Eine lange Handlung wird von einer kürzeren unterbrochen. They were having lunch when suddenly the mobile rang.
- 4. Eine Handlung verlief zu einem bestimmten Zeitpunkt oder innerhalb einer bestimmten Zeitspanne: What were you doing yesterday at four? Between four and five I was doing my homework.

PAST SIMPLE or PAST CONTINUOUS?

1. Barney and Betty (sit)	in a restaurant when I (see) them.
2. He (play) the piano	when I (come)
to see him.
3. Paul (do) his homev	work when his mother(ask)
him to come.
4. While John (repair)	the garden bench Mary (bake)
a cake.
5. Tom (watch)	TV, his mum (work)
in the kitchen, and his dad (repair)
Tom's bike.
6. What (they / do)	yesterday at three?
They (play)	tennis as far as I know.
7. We (talk)ak	bout the wonderful summer when it
(start) to rain
8. I (have)a bath w	hen the guests (arrive)
9. When I (meet) Phil last w	veek, he (ride)
his new mountain bike.
10. Last weekend we (walk)	in the mountains when Sue (fall)
over a stone and (h	urt) her knee.
11. Sandy (play) the	guitar and Linda (sing)
12. While Mr Grant (take)	his dog for a walk, a thief
(come) to his house and	(steal)
a painting.

PAST CONTINUOUS: was/ were & -ing form Lösung

- 1. Für lang andauernde Handlungen in der Past Tense: He was waiting for the bus.
- Wenn zwei (längere) Handlungen gleichzeitig verlaufen.
  Tom was watching TV while his wife was baking a cake.
- 3. Eine lange Handlung wird von einer kürzeren unterbrochen. They were having lunch when suddenly the mobile rang.
- 4. Eine Handlung verlief zu einem bestimmten Zeitpunkt oder innerhalb einer bestimmten Zeitspanne: What were you doing yesterday at four? Between four and five I was doing my homework.

PAST SIMPLE or PAST CONTINUOUS?

- 1. Barney and Betty (sit) were sitting in a restaurant when I (see) saw them.
- 2. He (play) was playing the piano when I (come) came to see him.
- 3. Paul (do) was doing his homework when his mother(ask) asked him to come.
- 4. While John (repair) was repairing the garden bench Mary (bake) was baking a cake.
- 5. Tom (watch) was watching TV, his mum (work) was working in the kitchen, and his dad (repair) was repairing Tom's bike.
- 6. What (they / do) were they doing yesterday at three?

They (play) were playing tennis as far as I know.

- 7. We (talk) were talking about the wonderful summer when it (start) started to rain.
- 8. I (have) was having a bath when the guests (arrive) arrived.
- 9. When I (meet) met Phil last week, he (ride) was riding his new mountain bike.
- 10. Last weekend we (walk) were walking in the mountains when Sue (fall) fell over a stone and (hurt) hurt her knee.
- 11. Sandy (play) was playing the guitar and Linda (sing) was singing.
- 12. While Mr Grant (take) was taking his dog for a walk, a thief (come) came to his house and (steal) stole a painting.